The presentation is about the origin and methods of making of Yakut phonoinstruments, on the basis of study of ethnographic, linguistic, and musicology data of the XIX–XX centuries. On the basis of analysis of linguistic data from the dictionary of E. Pekarsky the Yakut instruments are described. We will pay attention to a few phonoinstruments, denominations which originate from emulating a sound, extracted from these sound instruments.